Handwoven Rattan Pendant Shade | Kibuyu

Product description

By Uniqwa Collections with an ethos of using recycled plantation materials to create contemporary organic designs, this pendant will make an elevated coastal statement when used in an interior space. Crafted from handwoven rattan in a natural finish, and a durable iron frame the Handwoven Rattan Pendant Shade will suit organic interior style when installed as a feature in a living room, bedroom, or over a dining room table.

Please Note: unless selected this product is supplied as a shade only.

Please note: Hand-made shapes might vary from piece to piece. Irregularities in shape and paint cracking are not considered a fault.
